A Card.

So many statements have been going the rounds about my work in Jefferson that I feel it my duty to make this announcement. I came to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ--no more, no less--was denied the use of some of the churches and have not been affined the use of any except that situated at Howellton. I was tendered the use of the court house and accepted the kindness. The court room has been put in good condition for our services. It is well ventilated, well seated, lighted with electricity, and it is clean. A splendid organ has been secured (by kindness of Mr. McGarity) and other musical instruments have been promised. By the cooperation of those who love the truth and the divine help of Almighty God we are determined to leave the people of old Jefferson without excuse.

We preach Christianity and advocate the keeping of the "Golden Rule" instead of the rule of gold.
We offer

No Book But The Bible.
No Creed But The Christ.
No Plea But The Gospel
No Name But The Divine.

We plead for the "UNITY OF THE Spirit in the bond of Peace." We believe that ALL Christians should be UNITED in one Body, so that the world may receive Christ by faith. Read the 17th chapter of St. John. We believe that division and strife are wrong. On this point read from 1st Corinthians, 1st chapter, 20th to 24th verses. Also same book, 3rd chapter, 1st to 7th verses, and 21st to 23rd verses.

Come out and hear "A cow separates the 'sticks' from the 'hay.'" We ask you to be as careful and wise as she.

Isaac Watts said:
"Seize on truth, wherever found,
On Christian, or on heathen ground,
The gem's divine, where'er it grows, Neglect the thorn, but pluck the rose."
Yours in the service of Christ,
C. C. BEARDEN

The Lantern for September.

The September number of the Lantern, Senter's new monthly magazine, redeems its promise to discuss public affairs as a free lance, and is likely to create a stir in political circles. A cartoon entitled "What Really Happens at Houston," shows Gov. Hogg lambasting a hungry cur labeled "Southern Pacific," which is trying to run away with two beefsteaks labeled "The State" and "The Democratic Party." The action of the Houston convention in electing as Democratic state chairman a general attorney of the Southern Pacific railway system is severely criticised, and the railroads are charged with having collected proxies and packed the convention with their attorneys and holders of free passes. Special articles which discuss Texas freight rates and railroad taxation in this state present figures of peculiar interest to tax-payers and shippers. Other articles discuss in vigorous fashion "the gospel of a-h," "Reagan's letter to Riley," "The negro as a fictitious issue, and the evils caused by his miseducation," "Judge Parker on trusts," "Proposed constitutional amendments," "Bryan in the campaign," "Governor Culberson on the Southern Pacific," and other subjects of general interest. "About Texans" is a department enriched with pen pictures of Texans in the public eye. "Harpeville Sketches No. 2" is a glowing photograph true to real life, by an undisclosed Texas author writing under the pseudonym of "The Ranger." The issue is well illustrated with large half tone pictures of the Democratic nominee for state office.

The interest in the revival at the court house has been increasing during the week. Brother Bearden will be with us until about the first of October; possibly longer, and asks us to say that the pastors and members of all the churches are cordially requested to assist in the work of leading souls to Christ.

George H. Hand, who died a short time ago at Shenandoah, Ia., was the oldest printer in Iowa.
He was born in Indianapolis in 1833 and learned the printer's trade when a boy. He had followed the craft after the fashion of fifty years ago by traveling and working in all the leading cities of the North and South. He once "held a case" on the Tribune in the days of Horace Greeley. Hand joined John Brown in Kansas and when the civil war broke out he was one of the first to enlist.

The Home Advocate of Dallas is loyal to State industries and an earnest advocate of their patronage and maintenance by Texas people, declaring that when the time comes that every Texas community, town and city shall become completely loyal to its own factories, its own merchants, its own printers and its own institutions of every kind and all give preference to each other as against the outside, there will come prosperity to the Lone Star State which will far exceed the hopes of the most sanguine. Such a policy would wipe out the petty local jealousies that form such a bar to progress and substitute therefor a generous rivalry between the business people of each town and between town and town that would work a wonderful change for good all over the state. Let us hope and work to the end that this time may speedily come. -- Brenham
